

February Pigfest Society Propositions

(Discussed in the round from the affirmative and negative positions)

Round 1:

Political incrementalism is bad because it prompts us to lose our principles.

Round 2:

We are raising a generation of financially illiterate and unprepared children. Parents should be more proactive in promoting financial literacy and financial preparedness in their children, and must set themselves to knowing how to do that.

Round 3:

Philosophically and literally food is based on five inputs, but most people don't know what they are and therefore don't enjoy food as much as they might if they did.

Round 4:

There is only one worldview that makes for a sustainable planet. It is a worldview that says it is GOOD for man to eat other living things; that he should take dominion over the world of nature; that he must be a steward and take care of it, too, while not worshiping it.

Round 5:

One of the biggest lies running in our culture today is that WE LOVE WELL BY LETTING LIVE.
